James Carothers, Manzanares & Max Pack Officially Join the 2019 Los Alamos Summer Concert Series Lineup

Los Alamos, New Mexico, April 7, 2019: Country music sensation James Carothers and Latin guitar band Manzanares, with a special opening performance from The Max Pack, have officially joined the Los Alamos Summer Concert Series Lineup, as announced by Sancro Productions, producer of the 2019 series at Ashley Pond.

Mixing together Tennessee twang, southern storytelling and a big booming baritone, James Carothers makes throwback country music for modern times. Carothers was nominated for a 2018 Ameripolitan Award in the "Outlaw Male" category. His hit song "Back to Hank" has over 4 million views on Facebook & his Spotify & Apple Music artist profiles have been streamed over 1 million times combined. Inspired by his dad, Carothers always toyed with songwriting and began playing his own shows in local honky tonks around New Mexico during his teenage years. After getting married and starting a family, James worked at the Los Alamos National Laboratory as a technician to pay the bills. Today, Carothers is touring nationally with Country Music Hall of Famer and two-time Grammy Award-winning country artist Alan Jackson. Don't miss the August 30th concert, sponsored by Plateau Property Management and New Mexico Bank and Trust, where James Carothers will take the stage at Ashley Pond for his first return Los Alamos concert since heading to Nashville.

Manzanares is steeped in strong family traditions and a deep connection to their Hispano culture. Led by brothers David and Michael Manzanares and accompanied by some of the best musicians in the industry, Manzanares has been labeled one of the hottest Latin acts to hit the music scene, gaining both national and international attention. The Max Pack performs Jazz classics from the Great American Songbook, as well as original songs and covers of favorite artists (Frank Sinatra, Michael Bubl  and Tony Bennett). Max Manzanares, son of David Manzanares, is billed as an entertainer with an "old soul, young heart!" Manzanares & Max Pack will take the stage on June 21st for their first Secret City Concert, which will be sponsored by the Los Alamos National Bank.
